ABOUT THE BOOK

Reviving Our Republic: 95 Theses for the Future of America is a bold blueprint for addressing America's most pressing challenges. Navy veteran and preservation leader Michael Bedenbaugh offers a dynamic framework for political reform, reinterpreting founding principles for 21st-century challenges.

Drawing inspiration from Martin Luther's historic call for reform, this non-partisan approach to restructuring American governance includes 40 actionable proposals for a more responsive, accountable government.

Readers will learn:

- Proposals to reform the electoral system.
- Strategies to curb corporate influence and strengthen individual liberty.
- A plan to restore balance between federal and state powers.
- Methods to ensure fiscal responsibility and address national debt.
- Ways to realign foreign policy with founding principles of neutrality.

Reviving Our Republic is a call to action for engaged citizens who yearn for meaningful change. Whether you're a concerned voter, community leader, or student of politics, this radical approach to reform will inspire you to engage in America's path forward.
